

RECOVER

The RECOVER function enables the timely resumption of normal operations

RESPOND

The RESPOND function enables the ability to contain the impact of security events

DETECT

The DETECT function enables the timely discovery of security events.

PROTECT

The PROTECT function consists of activities that help limit the impact of any single security incident

IDENTIFY

The IDENTIFY function consists of activities meant to ensure that the organization has full awareness & visibility of their hardware and software assets, their data flows, and the risks to their information security